

PRINCE AND THE Prior

Elegant Period Lunch

On July 3, 2010
Join the Prince for an elegant period lunch
at The Hill*
(now the Galilee Centre)
398 John Street North, Arnprior

Tickets are $35

An outstanding caterer will recreate the elaborate menu that was served to the Prince 150 years ago.

the menu

Chilled Roast Beef Loin
Hot Corned Beef
Chilled Smoked Tongue
Oyster Patties with Mustard Style Dip
Duck Terrine
Roast Potatoes
Fruit Tarts
Fresh Fruit
Fancy Sandwiches
Sparkling Punch

Tickets for the Elegant Period Lunch

are available in Arnprior at:
The Gallery Gift Shop
Sweet and Sassy Co.
Danny Mac's Pub
Arnprior District Museum
The Nick Smith Centre
Foodies Fine Foods (Almonte)

*The Hill is a stately mansion overlooking the Ottawa River that was once home to Daniel McLachlin who was the host for the Prince's visit.

Events at a Glance

10:00 am

More than 150 people dressed in period costume gather in Robert Simpson Park, Arnprior, to welcome the Prince.

11:00 am

The Prince arrives in a flotilla of canoes. Speeches are made, formalities are observed, posies are presented and there is music, singing, and screams of Hip Hip Hurray!

12:30 pm

Elegant period lunch served at Galilee Centre.
Tkts. $35.

1:00-1:30 pm

Bertie Bear Tea Party for kids.

1:30 • 2:30 • 3:30 pm

Lumberjack Shows

storytellers, fiddlers,
country dancing,
entertainment,
food vendors, buskers
in the park
throughout the day.

10 am – 4 pm • Robert Simpson Park, Arnprior
Free admission to events in the Park • Rain or Shine